

So Your Contractor is Too Busy? How to Tackle Your Own Historic Home Projects! Hands-On Rehab Workshop

Thursday, October 25, 2018

6:30PM – 9:00PM

The 2018 Historic Preservation Lecture Series

Lead Presenter: Angel Corrales, Corrales Artisans & Consultants

Join Us! Venue 1902 · 301 W. 7th Street · Sanford, FL 32771

In today's robust housing market, property owners are often frustrated by a lack of return phone calls from contractors, cancelled site visits, and long wait times for work to begin on contracted projects. Business is booming, and many tradespeople are too busy to focus attention on small projects. There is perhaps nothing more frustrating for a property owner than to be willing and able to pay for a project to be done, only to find themselves in a situation where no one is interested in taking the job. There is great news, though! Many small home improvement projects can be tackled by patient homeowners, with minimal skills. It may surprise you to learn that numerous restoration professionals became attracted to the trades out of necessity, due to difficulty in finding skilled and available professionals to do the work.

In this two and a half hour workshop, participants will work side by side with historic preservation experts from across the State of Florida, who will guide them through the steps involved in wood repair, use of epoxies, glazing, scraping, sanding, painting, and window restoration. Participants should wear clothing appropriate for the activity; close-toed shoes are encouraged. Arrive early, as there is a maximum number of attendees we can accommodate.

Meet your rehab experts:

Aimee Angel
Jacobs Engineering Group, Inc.

Karen Casey
Austin Historical

Christine Dalton, AICP
Preservation Consultant

Steve Quillian
Wood Window Makeover

The 2018 Florida Historic Preservation Lecture Series is presented by the Sanford Historic Trust, and supported by generous sponsorships from Christine Dalton and Wood Window Makeover, LLC.